Letter of Engagement

Thank you for choosing this office to prepare your tax return. This letter confirms the terms of my engagement with you and outlines the nature and extent of services I will provide.

I will prepare your federal and state tax returns for the current tax year from the information you furnish to me. It is your responsibility to provide me with all the information required for the preparation of complete and accurate returns. I will not audit or otherwise verify the data you submit, although I may ask you to clarify some of it. You, therefore, specifically confirm to me that all items of taxable income have been disclosed to me and that you have written records to substantiate all items claimed (receipts, cancelled checks, diaries, log books, etc.) and that you have reasonably estimated the market values of non-cash charitable contribution items.

Since the final responsibility for the completeness and accuracy of the returns is yours, you agree to review them carefully to fully acquaint yourself with all items contained therein to ensure that there are no omissions or mis-statements, before you sign them.

It is important for you to know that the law imposes a penalty if a taxpayer makes a substantial understatement of tax liability. You should also know that the IRS audit procedures will almost always include questions on deductions that require strict documentation such as travel and entertainment expenses, and business usage of autos and computers. In preparing your returns, I rely on your representations that I have been informed of all bartering transactions and that you understand and have complied with the documentation requirements for your expenses and deductions.

My fee for tax services is based on the complexity of the tax return(s) and the amount of time it takes me to complete the tax return(s). I expect to be paid in full upon the completion of the return. Tax returns will not be e-filed until your fee is paid in full. Any unpaid invoices over 90 days will be referred for collection. I am committed to safeguarding your confidential information. I do not disclose any non-public personal information about my clients or former clients except as required by law, and the National Association of Enrolled Agents (NAEA). Additionally, upon your written request, I will disclose information about you to the parties you specify. Any material you furnish for use in preparing your returns will be returned to you at the completion of your returns. If the returns are examined by taxing authorities, requests may be made for supporting documentation. Therefore, I recommend that you retain all pertinent records for at least seven years.

If the tax services and terms outlined above are in accordance with your understanding of our engagement, please sign this letter in the space provided. I appreciate the opportunity to serve you. If you have any questions, need additional information, or if I can be of assistance in any way, please call me.

Very truly yours,

Peter F. Corrao, E.A.

Client Document Request (as of 2016)

In 2016, Congress passed the PATH Act (“Protecting Americans Against Tax Hikes”) and the Affordable Care Act (“Obama Care”). As a result of this, additional documentation is now required for Health Care, the Earned Income Tax Credit, the Child Tax Credit, and the American Opportunity Tax Credit. In order to comply with these new requirements, please provide the following documents if you have not done so already. For new clients all documents are needed.

1. *Copy of Driver’s License, State Id card, or other picture id for all adults living in the household.
2. *Copy of Social Security Cards for all named in item #1 as well as any child being claimed on the tax return as a dependent. *Copy of Birth Certificates for all children.
3. Proof of health Insurance for all members of the household, Form 1095-A, B, or C.
4. Proof of Filing Status if there was change from last year. *Copy of your marriage certificate or divorce decree.
5. Proof that each child who is being claimed has resided in your household for at least 183 days of the tax year. *Provide any one of the following: A copy of school records, school letter or statement; landlord statement or lease agreement; health care provider statement; medical records; child care provider records; social service records; place of worship statement; employer statement; or Indian tribal official statement are all acceptable documents.
6. If child is over 18, proof of full time student status or disability status, see 7 below.
7. If your child is over 18 and in college, please provide Form 1098-T from the college, plus a transcript of fees charged by the college, and another transcript or receipt showing the fees paid by the student or parents.
8. *Copy of last year’s federal and state tax return

Due to these new IRS requirements, I, as your tax professional, am required to substantiate the filing status, dependents and tax credits claimed on your tax return. If I fail to provide proper documentation to the IRS, it will result in a $510 fine per credit, per return, for me, the tax preparer, so these documents are required.

*Note: If you bring originals to your tax appointment I will be able to make copies. Please request this upon check in.
